

I am opposed to the Consumer Bankers Assoc. challenge to Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Please do not support this attempted infringement on our privacy that would allow CBA members to solicit those of us with "established business relationships." If we want to talk with them -- we will call them.